

LUXURY

LUXURY MAGAZINE

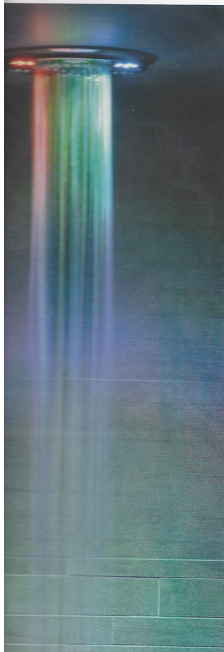

SPRING 2018

Parisian perfumer
Diptyque has released
Un Air de Diptyque
Noire—a limited-edition black version of its electric diffuser. Included with each device is a 40-hour capsule scent, like Roses
or Fig Tree. $350; diptyqueparis.com

The Zero Twist Print towels by Japanese textile brand Uchino have a soft, gauzy texture printed on one side with komon (the all-over patterns used on kimonos) and on the other, terry loops woven with zero-twist, nonply yarn for minimal pilling and maximal absorption. From $24; bloomingdales.com

Designed by Seattle-based woodworker Nathie Katzoff, the Lotus bathtub is available in a variety of sustainable domestic and exotic hardwoods finished with a proprietary clear composite barrier for durability. Available in three standard sizes, designs are made to order (shown here in sapele mahogany hardwood with a figured maple cap). NK Woodworking, price upon request; nkwoodworking.com ▸